

Affiliate Annual Report Form

Submit this form to your Regional Director and the NEAFCS National Office, 325 John Knox Rd. Suite L103 Tallahassee, FL 32303
Fax: (850) 222-3019 Email: djessup@executiveoffice.org

Please return this form by December 31st of each year to your Regional Director and a copy to the National Office.
This report should cover anything that has occurred between January 1 and December 31 of the current year.

State/Territory: Montana Date: 12/15/2020
Person Completing Form: Carrie Krug and Jackie Rumph Phone: (406)433-1206

What accomplishments/progress has your Affiliate made in the past year? (Consider member resources, awards and recognition, public affairs, etc.)

The Montana Extension Association of Family and Consumer Sciences recognized Katelyn Andersen, Ravalli County, received first place in the Western region for the Innovation in Programming Award, which is presented for innovation and accomplishment in the design and implementation of an FCS program. Holly Miner, Big Horn County won first place for Written Communications Media Award and second place for Food Safety, both in the Western region division.

Jackie Rumph, MSU Extension agent in Yellowstone County, received the Anne Wiprud Memorial Award, which recognizes an MSU Extension professional with fewer than 10 years of experience for outstanding achievements.

Katelyn Anderson, agent in Ravalli County, won the Mid-Career Award (10-20 years).

Jane Wolery, agent in Teton County, won the Montana ESP Distinguished Service Award.

Diversity Team award went to the Rainbows Over the Rockies team of Deb Albin, Barb Watson, Anne Bauer, Kimberly Richardson, Kelly Moore, Mary Fran San Soucie, Patrick Mangan, Cami Armijo-Grover, Christopher Coburn, JoDee Palin, Tracy Dougher, Alison Brennan, Amy Strader, Allie Zanieri-Hale, Jenny Jo Allen and Paul Lachapelle.

Jackie Rumph, agent in Yellowstone County, won the Diversity Individual award.

The Montana ESP Visionary Leadership Award was given to Marsha Goetting, family economics specialist, in recognition of her expertise in financial planning and estate planning and her advocacy for educating families about the special attention that is necessary when estate planning for a loved one with dementia.

The Montana Association of Community Development Extension Professionals awarded the Community Impact Award to Julie Riley, agent in Powder River County, for her work in improving community health with establishing the Powder River Trails.

What are your Affiliate's goals for the next 12 months?

Offer professional development through our next MEAFCS meeting to be held in May 2021.

Continue to meet the emerging FCS needs of Montana residents.

Continue to maintain the health and safety of Montana clientele through programing opportunities and making adaptations when needed.

What challenges do Cooperative Extension and/or Family & Consumer Sciences face in your state?

Meeting the evolving needs of MT families as evidence base grows on how to best do so.

Continuing to meet the healthy living needs of Montana residents through FCS programming.

Montana residents not having equal access to technology or internet capability.

To assist NEAFCS in future planning and communication, please list concerns your Affiliate has for the NEAFCS Board to address:

None at this time!