What accomplishments/progress has your Affiliate made in the past year? (Consider member resources, awards and recognition, public affairs, etc.)

- President-Elect Katie Krause attended the JCEP Extension Leadership Conference in Kansas City, Missouri.
- The Professional Development Committee hosted a virtual professional development opportunity on May 22, 2023, entitled "Learning from Each Other, Learning about Ourselves".
- Five members attended the 2023 NEAFCS Annual Session in Providence, Rhode Island. One concurrent session and one poster session were presented.

What are your Affiliate's goals for the next 12 months?

1. Increase number of members
2. Increase member engagement
3. Provide professional development opportunities for members

What challenges do Cooperative Extension and/or Family & Consumer Sciences face in your state?

- Budget concerns are huge for us right now across the University of Nebraska and the need to generate revenue for our programs. Many of our clientele are financially unstable and the concern for charging for programming.
- Americans are lacking basic food preparation, food safety and child development knowledge and skills though very few are willing to pay for these types of educational classes that have been taught by extension.

To assist NEAFCS in future planning and communication, please list concerns your Affiliate has for the NEAFCS Board to address:
