

Indiana Association of Extension Home Economists History

Indiana Extension Home Economists Association was organized on October 11, 1933 during Annual Conference. There were 10 charter members and the following were the first set of officers:

President - Hazel Arbuckle
Vice-President - Laura Gottfried
Secretary/Treasurer - Ruth Roll

At their first meeting, the group voted to send 25¢ dues per member to the newly formed National Association of Home Demonstration Agents.